Defendants.

Case No. 6:24-cv-00148

PLAINTIFFS' CORPORATE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(a)(1) and related standing orders in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division, plaintiffs Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, Business Roundtable, Texas Association of Business, and Longview Chamber of Commerce make the following disclosures:

1. Plaintiff Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America ("the Chamber") states that it is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization incorporated in the District of Columbia. The Chamber has no parent organization, and no publicly held company has 10% or greater ownership of the organization. The Chamber represents thousands of businesses who have noncompete agreements and are financially interested in the outcome of the case. The Chamber will promptly file a supplemental statement if any required information changes.

2. Plaintiff Business Roundtable states that it is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization incorporated in the District of Columbia. The Business Roundtable has no parent organization, and no publicly held company has 10% or greater ownership of the organization. Members of the Business Roundtable are CEOs of major United States companies, many of which have noncompete agreements and are financially interested in the outcome of the case. The Business Roundtable will promptly file a supplemental statement if any required information changes.

3. Plaintiff Texas Association of Business (“TAB”) states that it is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization incorporated in Texas. The TAB has no parent organization, and no publicly held company has 10% or greater ownership of the organization. The TAB represents Texas employers and workers who are financially interested in the outcome of this case. The TAB will promptly file a supplemental statement if any required information changes.

4. Plaintiff Longview Chamber of Commerce (“Longview Chamber”) states that it is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization incorporated in Texas. The Longview Chamber has no parent organization, and no publicly held company has 10% or greater ownership of the organization. The Longview Chamber represents 1,000 businesses and professional organizations in Gregg County and 11 adjacent counties. Many of its members have noncompete agreements and are financially interested in the outcome of this case. The Longview Chamber will promptly file a supplemental statement if any required information changes.
